

PERT @ SAIREC October 2015

“ I believe that renewable energy provides a significant opportunity to improve energy access and security, mitigate greenhouse gas emissions, ensure sustainable development and significantly improve socio-economic development,” said Tina Joemat-Petterson, South African Minister of Energy, pictured below with PERT Engineers, Charles Aznavour and Mike Makwanza at the South African Renewable Energy Conference Cape Town.

PERT INDUSTRIALS has developed a new range of training units for the various tiers of South African education and training. Pictured below at the SAIREC booth are: Turbine and Photovoltaic Trainers (University of Technology), Solar House (FET), Fuel Cell and Energy Exhibit (Science Centre) and SNAP Green (High School).
